

Anna Cabre

The winner of this prize will have the unique opportunity to have a 30-minute, private Zoom call with a climate scientist with a background in astronomy and cosmology who has also written two children's books! Anna Cabre is also a mother, and her goal is to contribute to a fair, sustainable future, one that takes into account the quality of life of future generations and the care for our planet. She is co-founder of the Spanish association Ellas Lideran to push forward the climate and gender agenda in Spain. She has written two children's books because she believes that educating about our impact on Earth is crucial to build a better future. Follow her on Twitter or Instagram @annacabrealbos or in her webpage <https://www.annacabre.science>. This is your chance to ask Anna about climate science, space, astronomy and more!
